

Le Mans 24 Hour Race Tour - 2016

Join Tony Haycock on his annual exclusive small group tour to Europe for the legendary Le Mans 24 Hours race and much more

2016 is the 50th anniversary of Bruce McLaren, Chris Amon and Denny Hulme's Kiwi 1-2 for Ford. Ford are returning in 2016 and Scott Dixon could be at the wheel of one. With Kiwis Earl Bamber and Brendon Hartley first and second this year there is every chance of a repeat performance

But this is not just a motor racing tour!

- 3 nights in Paris with included sightseeing and plenty of free time
- 2 nights in Tours for the Le Mans 24 Hours. Reserved covered grandstand seats for the race weekend
- 3 nights in the Loire Valley to explore the Chateaux and attractions of the area
- 1 night in Beaune (heart of the Burgundy region)
- 3 nights in Alsace, staying in a medieval walled village with the opportunity to visit the legendary Schlumpf museum and the French National Railway museum
- 2 nights in Ypres with a private guided tour of the WWI battlefields of Passchendaele, Messines and other sites of New Zealand significance
- 1 night in Frankfurt

This is an off the beaten track experience, not your usual coach tour. Maximum group size is eight plus Tony as driver/guide. We eat in small, local restaurants and stay in 3 star boutique character hotels.

NZ$10 999.00 per person share twin/double

ex Auckland/Wellington/Christchurch Departing 12 June 2016

Options available to extend pre- or post-tour

For more information e-mail tony.maggie@paradise.net.nz or phone (+64) 021 662 441